Pauline

ARMCHAIR

Generated: 04/11/2026

Pauline is an armchair characterized by a design able to satisfy the taste of customers who look for a modern item that recalls the Seventies style. The frame is composed by two trapezoidal metal parts decorated with sculptured-effect details and rounded corners. This armchair exalts the core of the company that can shape the metal as a precious raw material. The seat of the armchair presents a soft cushion upholstered with fabric laid onto a saddle leather twine.
