

Silka dining armchair with a contemporary design and enveloping lines is the ideal choice for the dining area. It is also available in a version in different size, suitable for the living area. The solid ash frame, either natural or painted, enhances the wood texture, while the fabric or leather upholstery gives her elegance and comfort. Silka chairs and armchairs add a touch of colour and style to each room, becoming a fashionable piece of furniture. A perfect balance among craftsmanship, materials research and contemporary style.
