

It is a coffee table result of a continuous desire to experience. The base is unusually composed of two vase-shaped bodies different in size and which seem fused together. At the top end there are two circular marble tops with different diameters. The double structure of this coffee table is in ceramic with a three-dimensional finish that can be traced back to the texture of a woven fabric. This piece is particularly suitable for those who are always looking for unique pieces.

ISOTTA

Coffee table

74 W x 48 D x 73 H cm

